We have the freedom to speak.

Intense whispers are given us but not to be heard.

We have the freedom to speak.
We have the right to life. But not to society. We live in our society. But not to be heard. We live in this society.

We have the right to life. But not to society. We live in our society. But not to be heard. We live in this society.
We have the right to food!

We lack the right to food!

We have the right to happiness.

We lack the right to housing.

We need housing.

But not to health.

But not to liberty.
